UNREASONABLE USE

1. Without limiting the meaning of 'unreasonable', we supply the service and each of the value-added services for the purpose of your personal use.
2. We consider your use of the service or a value-added service feature, to be unreasonable if you:
 - a) make or receive calls or send or receive content on our network other than for your own personal use, or
 - b) use the service for commercial purposes without obtaining our written consent first. Commercial purposes includes, without limitation, the following activities:
 - i. wholesaling any service (including transit, refile or aggregate domestic or international traffic) on our network
 - ii. using the service (including any SIM card) in connection with a device that switches or reroutes calls to or from our network or the network of any supplier;
 - iii. using the service or a value added service feature in connection with a switch device which overcomes the time cap on free or flat call rates, thus keeping a line open potentially for hours and limiting the ability for other customers to access our network;
 - iv. running a telemarketing business or call centre;
 - v. downloading content for business use.

We may give or withhold our consent, or make our consent subject to conditions, at our discretion.

4. You must comply with any rules imposed by any third party whose content or service you access using the service.
5. You may only use any content accessible through the service for personal and non-commercial purposes. You may not otherwise copy, publish, re-publish, re-distribute, re-communicate, or otherwise commercially exploit such content in any form or by any method whatsoever. - i. suspend or limit your service or your access to these offers, or
- ii. terminate the Agreement,

In each case immediately and without notice to you.

13. Please note, unless the Telecommunications Consumer Protection Code applies to your contract with us, that our right to suspend your access to these value added service features without notice under this Policy overrides any requirement we may have to give you notice in other parts of the SFOA.
